Program Description

It's been a challenging year for the principles of ethics, integrity, compliance and accountability. Seems like every time we turn around, someone is shading the truth, closing back-room shadow deals and explaining away suspicious actions. Unfortunately for too many organizations – business as usual!

In this session, we'll take a step back and summarize business ethics trends and cases from 2023. We'll all join in the virtual discussion with agreement, arguments (both logical and emotional), questions and comments. And out the back end of this process, hopefully come away with 2024 action steps we can each take to stop any slide down the slippery integrity slope, and reverse the trend. Come prepared to think deep and critically about what's happening all around us, and what we might do personally and as a group to reverse any negative trends

Learning Objectives

- Analyze 2023 business ethics and integrity cases
- Understand that behavior standards without accountability is nothing more than 'mock ethics'
- Explore the real root cause of business ethics breakdowns – critical first step in any fix recommendations
- Recognize the opportunity to be part of the 'ethics solution' – and maybe even lead the charge

Who Should Attend

- Internal audit, government audit and similar professionals
- Certified Public Accountants and Chartered Accountants
- Certified Fraud Examiners
- Business consultants
- Executives and business owners
- Business journalists
