LOCATION	Zoom Webinar
CPE CREDITS	2 CPEs in Auditing
NO. IN SERIES	Spring Webinar Series Program 3 of 5

Program Description

In Part 1 on April 10, we looked at 'advanced application' of leadership skills for creating a positive initial and lasting impression, building legitimate business rapport, and influencing positive corrective action where it's needed. In this Part 2, we'll continue this deep exploration by looking at leadership-focused interviewing, listening, speaking, and presenting skills – with a special emphasis on how to plan and run effective on-line virtual meetings. In both programs, we're looking past the fundamentals toward high-level application of these skills in interactions with others along with the adjustments we all need to make to be recognized as business leaders.

Learning Objectives

- Understand the critical business leadership skills of interviewing, listening, speaking and presenting
- Analyze your current interpersonal and communication skill levels
- Identify where gaps exist and corrective action that's needed
- Discover how to lead better online interviews, meetings and presentations
- Build better PowerPoint slides that avoid common mistakes and take advantage of proven techniques
- Analyze how apply these skills at an advanced leadership level – every day

Who Should Attend

- Your team members who need to improve interpersonal leadership skills
- All internal audit practitioners and leaders
- Government auditors who are interested in stepping up their effectiveness
- All business consultants
- Certified Public Accountants and Chartered Accountants
- Compliance technical experts in insurance, banking and other industries
- Anyone interested in interpersonal, behavior & communications skills growth
